

School open houses feature education week

Romulus Community School District will highlight its observance of American Education Week next week with three formal open houses at the school system's newest educational facilities, School Superintendent Robert L. McConeghy announced Monday.

The open houses, scheduled during the hours of 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday, will mark the Board of Education's official introduction to the Romulus community of the school district's newest and recently completed facilities.

Open House programs will be held at the central offices of the Board of Education, maintenance building and warehouse, all located at 36540 Grant Rd.; The new Merriman Elementary School, located at 15303 Merriman Rd.; and the Romulus High School Auditorium and high school additions, located at 9650 S. Wayne Rd., William E. Jakad, assistant school superintendent, reported.

The open house affairs at the already-occupied facilities will substitute for dedication ceremonies. A community-wide invitation has been extended by the school board.

All Romulus schools will join in a total open house program during American Education Week, Jakad said. Any parent can visit schools of the district at any time during school hours.

The new and latest educational structures were financed by funds from a $3.4 million bond issue approved by the voters in October, 1967.

The 20-room Merriman Elementary School, designed by T.R. Jahr Associates of Dearborn, was built at a cost of $2,012,300. Contracts were signed June 9, 1969 and the building occupied last September.

Romulus High School additions — which included the high school auditorium, auto shop and administrative offices at the high school auditorium, auto shop and administrative offices at the high school — was constructed at a cost of $715,024.85.

The school's auditorium has a seating capacity of 893. Contracts for the high school additions were signed in November, 1968. The facilities were occupied last September.

The maintenance building and administrative offices for the Board of Education was built at a cost of $420,958.29. The facility has an area of 20,285 square feet.

Contracts for the school structure was signed in November, 1968. The building was put into use last February.

The T.R. Jahr Associates also designed the high school additions and maintenance building and administrative offices.

ROMULUS HIGH'S HOMECOMING COURT — The annual Homecoming of Romulus High School will be held Friday. A day-long program of festivities include a parade and Homecoming football game with River Rouge High School. The Homecoming dance is set for 7:30 p.m., at the high school

Romulus High School awaits Homecoming

Homecoming Parade plans for the Romulus High School are being finalized by Miss Brenda Blanton, chairman for the event to be held on Friday.

The parade is scheduled to form at 1:30 p.m. at the Romulus Junior High School, 11401 Olive St. It will proceed to Goddard Rd., arriving in downtown Romulus around 2 p.m., she said.

While Brenda expressed disappointment that more floats were not entered by the Romulus business and civic groups, she reported that four high school class floats are entered, along with the queen's float and one being prepared by the Romulus Auto Club.

Decorated cars have been entered by the YWCA, National Honor Society, Theatre Arts Club, Future

Nurses Association, Future Homemakers Association, Thrift Shop, Office Experience Association (Co-op), Romulus Youth Council, B Boaster Club and Student Council. Romulus City Officials will also occupy a car in the parade, Brenda stated.

Both the Romulus High School Band and the River Rouge High School Band will march and play, escorted by the usual array of horses and minibikes.

Those riding on the queen's float will be Misses Marilyn Banks, 36917 Mario Ann Court; Pat Bell, 5898 Dexter; Sherie Franklin, 6303 Colorado; Sandy Harding, 11429 Moore; and Tammy Owens, 15647 Isabelle.

The five girls were chosen from a slate of 46 candidates. Final vote for queen will be held on tomorrow.

"How The West Was Won" is the theme for float and car entries.

The winning float or car will be awarded a trophy during halftime of the football game that starts at 3:30 p.m.

A dance to be held in the High School gymnasium at 7:30 p.m. will conclude Homecoming activities.

'Meet the candidates' tonight
The Huron Township Jaycees are sponsoring their third and final "Meet the Candidate Night" at 7:30 p.m. tonight at the Huron Elementary School, located on Merriman Rd., at Huron River Dr., new Boston.

Huron Township residents are urged to come and get acquainted with those seeking election to local and state offices. The multi-purpose room at the school has been reserved for the event.

The progress of learning for Charlie depends completely on him. A main idea of the film is the school being ready to teach the student when he is eligible to progress. There are over 27 million children who attend elementary school that are ungraded. The student sets his own pace of learning and may be doing school work far beyond his age.

The November Parent-Teacher Conference meeting will begin at 6:30 Tuesday, Nov. 10. There will be a short business meeting before the evening program.

The special program will feature a hunting program with James C. Stewart and other members from the Romulus Gun and Rifle Club. There will also be a film on archery.

Patrolman Sands

Huron officer reinstated

A part-time Huron Township policeman, suspended when a manslaughter warrant was issued against him last April, has been reinstated after dismissal of his case last week.

Patrolman Donald R. Sands, a truck driver who has "moon-lighted" as a policeman several evenings a week for two years, had been charged in the shooting death of a 17-year-old last March.

Wayne County Prosecutor William Cahalan filed the charge after Sands shot a New Boston youth, David Patch, with a 12-gauge shotgun. Sands said he feared that Patch, who was prying open a vending machine in a gas station, was armed. The boy carried only a screw driver.

Last Friday District Judge Richard D. Dunn dismissed the case on grounds of insufficient evidence and

Adoption of bylaws to prevent fund cut

New by-laws for the Wayne County anti-poverty program have been adopted by the County Board of Commissioners in an effort to prevent a Federal funding cut-off.

The regional office of the federal Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) at Chicago has notified the County that some $700,000 in Federal funds would be discontinued Nov. 30 "unless compliance with OEO regulations and guidelines is documented."

The County Board, meeting Oct. 15, suspended its rules in order to give immediate effect to a resolution designed to meet the federal directive.

Loss of the federal funds would close eight neighborhood action centers in Ecorse, Hamtramck, Highland Park, Inkster, River Rouge, Romulus, Sumpter and Taylor.

The Wayne County OEO also administers Project Head Start and several other programs funded by the federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

High water bill brings protest

Romulus City Council has ordered the city Water and Sewer Department to investigate and report on a citizen's protest about a high water bill.

David Mann, 10430 Mirain St., appeared before City Council last Thursday and reported that he has been billed three times during a three-month period for water at a home that he has purchased on a land contract.

He told councilmen that when he purchased the house in December 1969 he inquired about the bill. He was told that a bill of $113 was outstanding. This he paid.

Later, when he received his property tax bill, another water charge was added. This he also paid.

Then two months later he received still another bill, this time for $137 for water prior to his purchase of the property, he reported.

He contended that he should not pay the $137 bill because he had already paid what was due.

The council asked the water department to check.

The documents adopted by the Board of Commissioners were designed to clarify the basic responsibilities and authority of the County OEO's citizens committee, the Board of Commissioners and the County OEO staff. They include a more clearly defined administrative staff structure and a personnel policy.

Three members of the Economic Opportunity Committee of the Board of Commissioners are meeting with federal OEO officials at Chicago this week in an effort to save the program.

They are John S. Cook Jr. of Detroit (D-District 17) OEO committee chairman; John Lesinski of Dearborn (D-District 20) vice chairman; and William R. Bryant Jr., of Grosse Pointe Farms (R-District 3).

"I believe the actions taken by the Board of Commissioners should be satisfactory," Cook said. "We hope to convince them in Chicago that, regardless of past shortcomings, there are thousands of disadvantaged families in Wayne County outside Detroit who need these programs."

Several break-ins solved

A series of break-ins and acts of vandalism at the Mt. Pleasant Elementary School dating back to June, 1969 have been solved by the arrest of six juveniles, age 10-15 years, by officers of the Romulus Police Department and Wayne County Sheriff's Departments.

Romulus Police Chief Jacob J. Koch reported that all of the involved juveniles lived in the area of the school. Thefts and acts of vandalism at the school, he said amounted to $1,156.

Officers making the arrests were Patrolman Robert Kale of the Romulus police and John Wotring of the Juvenile Division of the sheriff's departments. The youths admitted their various parts in the break-ins, Chief Koch said.

The police investigation is continuing since a number of school break-ins remain unsolved.

Hit and run driver sought

Investigators from the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol are continuing their search for the driver of the vehicle which ran down two teenage boys late Saturday evening in Romulus.

One youth was killed and another remains in critical condition in Wayne County General Hospital today.

Police identified the dead boy as Ralph M. Green Jr., 16, of 36042 Goddard Rd., Romulus. Gregory H. Stater, 14, of 11038 Shook Rd. Romulus, was reported in the hospital's intensive care unit, a spokesman said.

A sheriff's official said the boys were in a group of four youths walking north on Goddard when a northbound vehicle swerved and struck them across from 37042 Goddard.

Green, died of injuries Sunday morning.

The accident occurred at 10:48 p.m.

School open house termed successful

Mt. Pleasant Elementary School staff and Parent-Teacher Association held an open house on Tuesday, Oct. 13.

The PTA hosted 17 teachers, four school board members and their wives and the school secretary, Crystal Kolver and her husband at a dinner before the open house.

The open house was held from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. with several parents visiting their children's classrooms and teachers. At 7:30 there were approximately 300 parents and students in the multi-purpose room where they viewed a film entitled "Charlie and the Golden Hamster" which shows examples of a non-graded school through Charlie's, the student, eyes.

The progress of learning for Charlie depends completely on him. A main idea of the film is the school being ready to teach the student when he is eligible to progress. There are over 27 million children who attend elementary school that are ungraded. The student sets his own pace of learning and may be doing school work far beyond his age.

The November Parent-Teacher Conference meeting will begin at 6:30 Tuesday, Nov. 10. There will be a short business meeting before the evening program.

McClendon heads study program

Floyd McClendon, director for the NYC (Neighborhood Youth Corps) in Romulus is heading up the Romulus High School Work-Study Program. He has found in working with the NYC that there are many deserving teenagers who want to help themselves but are not eligible for NYC because of finances. Through this second program, McClendon is trying to help these teenagers feel that school is important and at the same time is asking all employers in the Romulus area to aid him in his goal by offering after school jobs.

Some of the jobs that boys and girls would be able to do are bus boy, cafeteria work, cashier, clerical, mail delivery, file clerk, stock boy, waitress, retail sales, maintenance, library work and others.

If you are an employer and would like to help young people to help themselves please call McClendon at WH 1-2170, Ext. 46 at the Romulus High School during school hours.

Vocational program at Huron praised

To the editor:

Students in the Huron Schools are more fortunate than students in many other schools throughout the nation. They are eligible to participate in a Vocation Education Cooperative program.

The cooperative is a simple solution to a big problem—getting non-college bound students interested in obtaining job skills.

Of last year's graduating class, 31 per cent went to college. What about the 69 per cent that didn't? They had the opportunity to learn a job skill at Huron.

This vocational program includes five schools and many different vocations and has resulted in lowering the Huron drop-out rate in four years from 16.8 to 5 percent.

Students in the program may attend any of the schools to complete their program needs.

Huron High School offers, in addition to many business courses, machine trades, one and two, with 34 students enrolled. Also there is auto mechanics one and two with 67 enrolled. Tool and die shops regularly seek Huron students for employees.

Huron High students can attend the Dawn Beauty College in Flat Rock and become beauticians while in high school. There are currently six Huron students learning this profession.

Carlson High School in Gibraltar offers carpentry. These students have built a two-story colonial home for their project. Also at Carlson, students may have auto mechanics one and two and distributive education, a form of retailing.

Huron students at Carlson also are enrolled in the food services, which includes on-the-job training. These students are employed at the Golden Chef, Host International at Metro Airport, Ray's Prime Beef and many others.

Although no Huron students are at Grosse Ile this year, the school is part of the cooperative and offers advanced placement english, statistics, financial math, matrix algebra, introduction to analysis, and advanced languages.

Airport High School at Carleton offers graphic arts. Here a student can learn the printing trade.

Flat Rock High offers two years of welding, a job skill that is always in demand.

Huron Students are introduced to vocational education at the seventh grade level. The girls have home economics and the boys begin industrial arts.

The industrial arts classes in the seventh grade include preliminary drafting, use of hand tools and machine operation, electricity and the use of tin.

The eighth grade industrial arts course covers drafting, woods and wood working, use of tin and advanced electricity.

The five schools working together are able to offer a wide vocational curriculum to all students. Bus transportation is provided between the schools.

Being in the program does not necessarily mean a student's education stops at graduation. Many of them go on to take technical courses in their field, such as automotive engineering or college level job skill classes.

At Huron High School, there are many educational doors being opened for our young people. Let's see that they are never closed.

People For Huron

Up-river reluctance on sewage criticized

To the editor:

There is a controversy brewing to our West in the cities of Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti that is of vital and long range concern to all of us in the downriver area. That is the continued pollution of the Huron River and impoundments of Ford and Belleville lakes.

The plan to eliminate sewage of sewage effluent from the Huron River is the construction of a Regional Sewage Treatment System. This system would include a six-county area and sewage would be piped to a treatment plant at the mouth of the Huron River. Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor, both in Washtenaw County, are proposed to be included in this plan.

City of Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor officials at a meeting of the Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG) last Friday stated that such a system would be too costly for their cities. Ypsilanti stated this system would cost $200,000 more per year than to expand its present plant, which discharges into the Huron River.

Ann Arbor officials stated it would cost the city approximately $15,000 more per year than expanding their plant. A part of the "plant expansion" program would be to pipe the treated sewage upstream so it "mixes thoroughly" before reaching Ford Lake.

In June of 1969, the Michigan State Legislature passed legislation to implement the $285 million bond program for construction of waste water treatment plants.

The bond money enables communities to receive grants up to

To the editor:

The enclosed is a copy of the agreement between the Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA) and the combined firms of Perkins and Will, Architects, of Chicago, Illinois and Todd Wheeler, Hospital Consultant of Chicago, Illinois and is dated June 30, 1970 and signed by Donald J. Pizzimenti, chairman of the Board of Directors of P.C.H.A. and Hiram McNeely, secretary of the P.C.H.A.

Since the agreement was signed, the Board of Directors was still interviewing architects and engineers for the planning and designing of the proposed new hospital to be built in the City of Taylor, Michigan. Meetings were being held on Aug 14, 1970. The Board of Directors, consisting of 42 members, voted 19-15, with 8 absent, to award the contract to the combined Chicago firms.

The board did not vote to make the contract retro-active to June 30, 1970 and Donald J. Pizzimenti knew the contract was already signed. This makes the interviewing additional architectural firms a farce.

The contract is illegal and, in my opinion, the contract should be cancelled and these irregularities should be investigated by the proper authorities.

The enclosed brochure will also show that the Chicago based firms have offices in Chicago, New York and Washington, but they do not have an office in Detroit or the State of Michigan. In fact, they do not have as much as an answering service here. The copies enclosed, made from their brochure, will show that of all the hospitals they list, they have, in fact, only designed five and two of these were in association with other architectural firms. The rest of the plans and drawings were either shelved or not used for some reason or another.

Pizzimenti states in his letter, "Fees are set by the American Institute of Architects". Again, as usual, Pizzimenti is wrong. The A.I.A. merely recommends fee schedules much of the same as the Bar Association or Blue Shield. The amount of the fee is between the owner and the architect. The Chicago firm first submitted a fee of 7 per cent of the total project costs, which is estimated to be between $15-20 million. When they learned that the Walter Butler Company of St. Paul, Minnesota submitted a fee of 6 per cent they dropped their fee to 6 per cent.

In a torrent of double talk, Pizzimenti attempted to justify the hiring of an additional hospital consultant from Boston at the fat fee of $300.00 per day plus expenses not to exceed $25,000.00 (This would be eaten up in less than 90 days). Pizzimenti also defended the employment of Dr. Guy W. Brugler of Boston as a consultant for the Taylor Hospital project by noting the P.C.H.A. might have needed a fulltime consultant instead of a parttime specialist if it had not chosen the Perkins firm. The contract is with the combined firms of Perkins & Will, who are architects and engineers and Todd Wheeler, who is supposed to be the hospital consultant. (Reference the enclosed brochure). The Perkins firm was sold to many of the board members as a package deal, so why the necessity of the additional consultant?

Furthermore, Dr. Karl Klicka, the present Executive director of the Peoples Community Hospital Authority, also lists himself 55 per cent of the cost of construction of treatment works and intercepting sewers.

An additional $50 million bond issue was approved by the voters in July, 1969 for the construction of collecting sewers. Legislation passed to implement this program.

The "Municipal Waste Water Discharge Inventory" of May, 1969 compiled by the Michigan Water Resources Commission indicated the following discharge of waste water by the cities of Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor.

Ypsilanti—4,800,000 gallons per day; Ann Arbor—14,209,000 gallons per day.

It is beyond comprehension that federal, state and local representatives of government would entertain approval of a plan that would insure continued pollution of recreation waters.

The forecast population growth of these cities would make any temporary expansion of their facilities obsolete in a matter of time, and this time may very likely be a time when there will be inadequate funds available for further necessary expansion.

This population growth forecasts dictate that these cities not only stop contamination of the Huron River with sewage—they must also make provision for obtaining water supply from a source other than the Huron River. Reduced flowage from these cities intake has already drastically reduced the rivers capability of cleansing itself through flowage.

Our readers write PCHA board member hits pact

Dear Dr. Klicka:

We are pleased to acknowledge receipt of the signed copy of Standard Form of Agreement between Owner and Architect for the proposed new Hospital at Taylor, Michigan. We very much appreciate the vote of confidence expressed by you and your Board in selecting our Michigan Partnership.

We also wish to acknowledge your reference to our letter of June 8, wherein we summarized the estimated fee projections to complete the project for your budget purposes.

Fees for preparation of the Long Range Plan and the basic architectural services were derived directly from the contract provisions. The reimbursable travel expenses of $10,000 are based upon our understanding of the project requirements as determined to date. The estimated cost for full time field representation of $75,000 is based upon the services of one man over a construction period not exceeding three years. If the construction period is shortened or if it is mutually agreeable that one or more additional men are required to perform the field services adequately, this estimated figure would be adjusted accordingly.

These provisions allow the Peoples Community Hospital Authority flexibility in the utilization of professional services appropriate to project needs as can be determined at any given time.

Very truly yours, as a hospital consultant, but is he going to play in this game of musical chairs with the public paying for the fiddler?

Pizzimenti states that the four other hospitals presently operated by the P.C.H.A. were designed by a consultant. As usual, he failed to check his facts. The P.C.H.A. did engage the services of a top-notch hospital consultant from Ann Arbor (in fact, he designed the original University of Michigan Hospital). Unfortunately, Dr. Christopher Parnell was a very old man at the time and became so ill that after a few months he was forced to drop out of the picture.

The hospitals were designed by the former executive director of the Peoples Community Hospital Authority, Ken Gremore, and the architectural firm of Smith, Hinchman and Grylls with the co-operation of the employees and medical staff of Beyer Memorial Hospital in Ypsilanti, which was the only hospital the P.C.H.A. operated prior to the construction of Annapolis, Outer Drive and Seaway.

In another statement attributed to Pizzimenti from the Ypsilanti Press, "It should be noted here our financial advisors have estimated that continuing delay in getting started on the Taylor Hospital could cost the authority as much as $50,000 per month". The questions I ask of Pizzimenti are, "Who are the financial advisors?" "Why hasn't the rest of the Board of Directors been given this information?" "In as much as the plans and drawings will take from 18 months to two years to complete, who and on what basis are these predictions made?"

With the increasing costs of hospitals and medical services, it is time that someone start to call a halt to some of these high and unnecessary expenditures. I appreciate the coverage the news media is giving this matter and from the phone calls I have received, the public also appreciates the facts being brought out.

JA completes first week

Junior Achievement of Southeastern Michigan has just completed its first week of operation.

Executive Vice President Edward P. Nagel said, "From all indications the 1970-71 J.A. year will be one of our most successful in history. Despite the bad weather and air of tension in some communities, the student turn out is good. The teens are enthusiastic and their advisors are anxious to have their companies do well in local, regional and national competition."

Students from a six-county area are operating J.A. companies in 28 business centers in southeastern Michigan. These companies are formed in order to give teens a first hand picture of how business in the United States actually operates. J.A. teens sell stock to raise capital, buy raw material, produce an item, and then must sell the finished product to make a profit.

Most J.A. companies are successful and their stockholders receive dividends at the end of the year, but even in those that falter, the students still learn through their mistakes.

During the first company meeting last week, the names of companies were selected and the board of directors, the students, discussed possible products.

This week the J.A. companies will elect their officers, distribute stock certificates for sale and some will start production.

R-W Service System, Inc., 20225 Goddard Rd., Taylor, announces the promotion of C. Russell Wagstaff to the position of board chairman-chief executive officer, and Robert B. Fraser to the position of president.

Both men have been instrumental in the development and growth of R-W Service since its inception in October 1960.

The general commodity carrier is currently grossing in excess of $10,000,000 annually in the Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois area.

Kiwanis sale nets $1,479

The Romulus Kiwanis Club "went over the top" in its recent Kid's Day Peanut Sale by grossing $1,479.02.

The club had set a goal of $1,000 as a realistic and necessary amount needed to continue its service to youngsters in the area. Jerry Canejo, Peanut Sale chairman, organized the members into a sales force, not just to sell peanuts but to sell to the public the assurance that the Kiwanis Club is doing a service job for the youngsters.

Kiwanians manned the various work stations at places of business and busy intersections throughout the city. "If you failed to see Kiwanis in action, you must have been out of town or incapacitated, because they were there," Canejo states.

This year's peanut sales were the largest in the 12-year history of the club.

Top salesman for the venture was Ed Bizek, who turned in $190.01. However, there was plenty of help from the entire club. Stan Gnas came in second with $186.50; Canejo, Carl Morris and Rod Smith each collected more than $100.

The Romulus Kiwanians wish to express their thanks and gratitude to the people who donated so generously in order to assure that Kiwanis' work among indigent children in Romulus will continue during the coming year.

Council dislikes contract

The Detroit Edison Company was charged with failing to repair and maintain proper and adequate street lighting in some areas of Romulus.

The city council at its session last Thursday approved the sending of a communication to the firm demanding immediate action on street light repair or rebating to the city monies expended by the city for unused street lighting.

President of the city council, Jimmie Raspberry complained of certain streets lights being out in some sections of the city.

He cited areas where the lights had been out for more than two months despite earlier requests to the firm to replace them.

Councilman Ellis T. Pennington said, "I am very disappointed at the Edison Company. For the last two months we have complained about specific lights. I think that council should send them a letter demanding a rebate. We are paying for street lighting that we are not getting."

Councilman James C. Stewart reported that Romulus is charged a flat rate based on the number of lights in the city and he added, "If they can do this to Romulus, how about other communities? Maybe we should band together and have Edison get busy and fulfill its contract."

Land parcel sought

A land parcel, located at the rear and south of the city's Water Board Building, at 36515 Bibbins St., is now available to Romulus, Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael reported to city council.

The 150 by 215-foot parcel of land can be purchased by the city for $14,500 plus refencing and if council approves the land purchase, it will fill an urgent need for more space by the department of public works, Mayor Carmichael stated.

Romulus assumed the maintenance and repair of most of its streets and roads when the community became a city May 7, 1970. More space is needed for the stockpiling of road maintenance equipment and supplies.

The land parcel which is adjacent to the present quarters of the department of public works is ideal, the council was told.

Councilman Jimmie Raspberry inquired if the city could purchase the site without the approval of the people, or could the land parcel be leased.

Councilman James C. Stewart stated that he was in favor of buying the location.

At the suggestion of Raspberry, the council agreed to have the city attorney John E. Young study and prepare a legal opinion on the city purchasing the site.

No further details are available and an estimate on damage could not be obtained.

Romulus Jaycees hold trap shoot

The Romulus Jaycees held their Annual Trap Shoot Sunday, Sept. 27. Though not a success financially, the event proved successful in the amount of fun everyone had.

The project chairman, Mitch Mason, this week expressed his thanks to all the men who showed up to shoot, for their help in supporting the Romulus Jaycees.

The big winners of the day were: Lloyd Hall of Westland, first prize, a Western Field Shotgun; Buck Carter of Romulus, second prize, a gun case; and Vernon Hall of Rockwood, third prize, a hunting vest.

Mitch and his committee members, Al Bossidis and Lee Silvey, also appreciated the help of all the Jaycees who worked on the project. They also thank the Romulus Jaycee Auxiliary members who stayed all day and sold refreshments.

In our opinion

Winter around corner; get vehicle prepared

The total estimated cost of traffic accidents in this country during the first half of 1970 was more than $7.2 billion. That's enough to build 360,000 homes costing $20,000 each.

The dollar cost involves more than just the automobile.

Lost wages, productivity, disruption of schedules, medical expenses, property damage (of others), service costs of insurance, must be considered too.

The loss in human life and crippling injuries is incalculable.

The Insurance Information Institute has reported that during the first half of 1970 the number of traffic accidents was up 8.7 per cent over the preceding year.

Now that winter is approaching with its shorter daylight hours and more inclement weather, driving becomes even more hazardous.

Simple common sense dictates that every vehicle should be carefully checked before winter driving becomes a reality.

We remind motorists that the abuse of alcohol is a factor in more than 50 per cent of traffic accidents.

Howard Pyle, president of the National Safety Council, adds, "Alcohol is involved in at least 25 per cent of home accidents and countless hunting, boating and skiing accidents."

It is a wise person who remembers that alcohol is a dangerous partner when one is driving or engaging in outdoor sporting activities.

Hefty tax hike is only answer

By ELMER E. WHITE Secretary, Michigan Press Association

A private research firm took a long look at state government's financial condition and came to the conclusion the state has "overloaded the circuits."

It further concludes that the only way out of the current situation is a hefty tax increase.

"About the only solution available next year, short of employing the untried concept of reducing costs and putting the lid on spending, will be to insert larger capacity fuses - higher income tax rates," the report by the Citizens Research Council said.

The council's annual budget report said the state's $1.7 billion spending level authorized for fiscal 1970-71 will eat up nearly all of the budget surplus on hand at the close of the last fiscal year.

"Appropriations for fiscal year 1971 outstrip expected income and nearly consume the estimated $63.7 million surplus of June 30," the report said. "Assuming revenue estimates hold up, fiscal year 1971 would close with a cumulative surplus of just under $2 million."

The report said a $2 million surplus comes "too close to comfort" by barely complying with a constitutional mandate that annual appropriations must not exceed available resources.

And it says a "deteriorating budgetary outlook" puts even that much of a surplus in question, since actual tax collections for fiscal 1970 fell $26.4 million below original estimates.

Other factors which the council feels foreshadow an income tax hike are: State Spending leaped 67 per cent, or $701 million, in the fiscal period 1967 to 1971 and increased concentration on such new programs as drug, crime and pollution control are likely to accelerate the spending spiral.

-New features built into state school aid bills increasing available funds for construction, vocational education, transportation and per pupil grants could increase state payments to local districts of $280 million in fiscal 1972.

-If the Legislature moves to replace or reduce local school property taxes with a statewide levy it could cost the state anywhere from $200 million to $480 million per year extra.

The women's lib movement scored a victory of sorts recently in the Michigan courts.

A woman attorney from Detroit, Miss Sue Weisenfeld, secured a letter from Supreme Court Chief Justice Thomas Brennan saying it's okay with him if women lawyers wear pant suits in court.

Miss Weisenfeld had written to Brennan asking his opinion of pant suits and asking him, in his capacity as chief justice, to write an "official letter" on the matter.

Brennan replied: "I find nothing inappropriate about trouser suits for women lawyers appearing in the Supreme Court or any other court in the state."

They have achieved wide acceptance among women of good taste in both business and social circles, and would not in these times be looked upon as mere sportswear."

The chief justice added some words of praise for Miss Weisenfeld's approach.

She had said, "I realize that I could proceed on the assumption that I have the right to wear what I consider appropriate, but if possible I prefer to avoid either argument or embarrassment."

Replied Brennan: "Your thoughtful and respectful letter is an example of the kind of concern for courtroom decorum which all lawyers should have, and you should be commended for your good judgement and discretion."

He's been out of office nearly two years now, but former Gov. George Romney's portrait still hasn't been hung in the Capitol.

There is a long-standing tradition that a life-size portrait of former governors is hung in the Capitol shortly after they leave office. The eight most recent governors are displayed around the rotunda just outside the governor's office. The others are spread throughout the building.

For quite a few months now, there has been an empty space along the rotunda wall, with only seven portraits hanging up.

Sources say they hope the portrait of Romney can be ready before the end of the year.

Important PTA confab set

Perhaps the most important conference ever planned for PTA leaders and members here as well as throughout the nation will be held Nov. 5-6 in Detroit.

Joining forces with the state PTA to sponsor this big project are Wayne State University and the Michigan Probate and Juvenile Court Judges' Association.

The November Conference expects to address itself to all the major areas of resources, services, facilities and future planning in the State of Michigan that concern children and youth.

The major method through which the goals of the conference will be reached is through eight concurrent workshops manned by a workshop coordinator and a group of panelists from the discipline area.

The anticipated attendance, which will include many from the Belleville and Romulus areas, is more than 3,000. We urge parents and teachers to participate in this all-important conference.

We suggest that our own communities please take note. The "Courtesy is Contagious" campaign, sponsored by the Central Business District Association, Detroit, has been termed a "great success." There were several thousand responses commended persons who work downtown.

The winners were judged on the basis of description of the courtesy and were awarded prizes.

Being courteous to others doesn't cost a penny. And from incidents observed in our own community, a similar campaign might be worthwhile. Vocational education, the neglected step-child of the educational system, has been downgraded by the public and relegated by educators to unmotivated students.

Many parents have felt that vocational education was good only for someone else's children.

Local school districts especially in the Van Buren and Romulus School Districts, educators are placing more stress on vocational training.

In our opinion, a new emphasis must be given to vocational training. Educators should reorient vocational programs to meet the pressing manpower needs of today and tomorrow. Counselors should point out the many opportunities in the skilled trades. Business leaders and the public should lend encouragement and know-how.

Let's all recognize the value, dignity and personal fulfillment of careers in the world of work.

'Decency' coordinator hits 'Huron People'

To the Editor:

The anonymous letter from "People for Huron," which appeared in your newspaper last month, blends so many half-truths and errors with the "facts" that its readers may be as confused as its writer.

The Movement To Restore Decency (MOTOREDE), a nationwide network of citizens groups, is most definitely sponsored by The John Birch Society. But far from hiding this fact, we tell it to anyone who will listen or read.

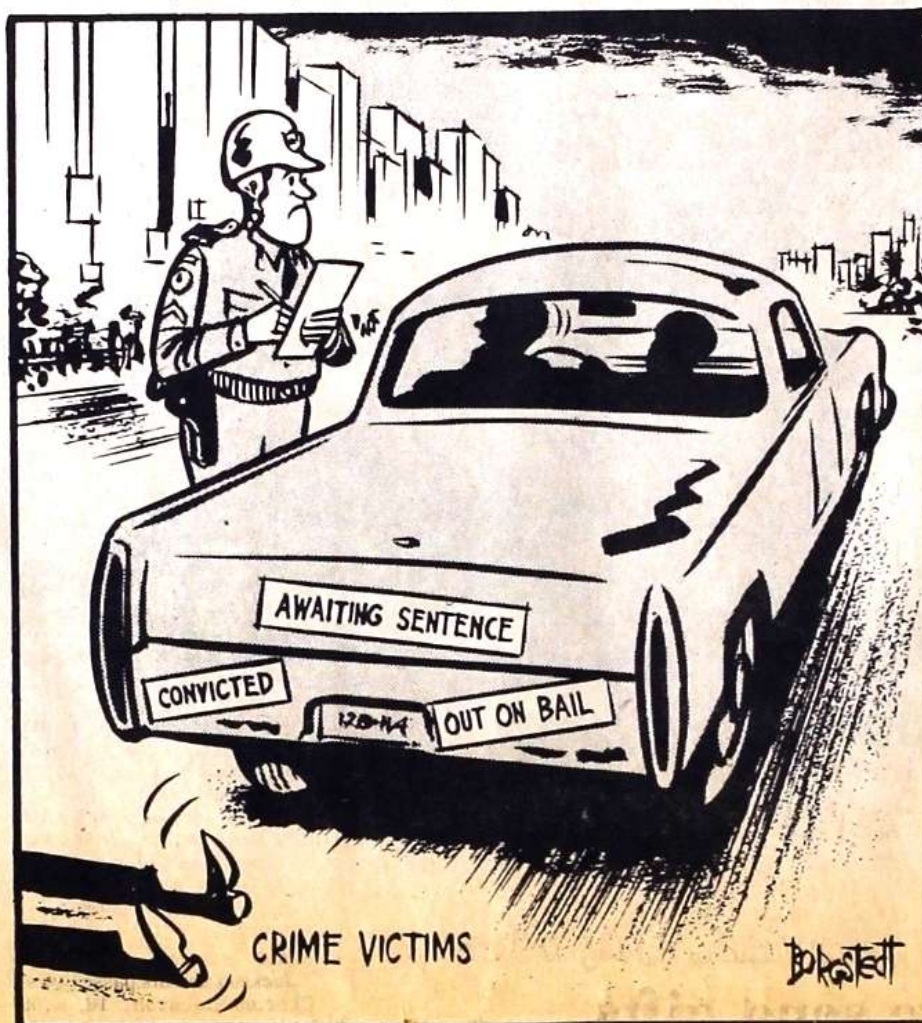

Every member of the more than 1,000 MOTOREDE committees in this country is aware of the society's sponsorship, and is grateful for it. For it means that concerned and patriotic parents can get sound materials and reliable advice from the most effective (and therefore the most smeared) anti-Communist organization in the United States.

It certainly does not surprise us that the National Education Association (NEA) has joined in the propaganda assault on MOTOREDE. The NEA has gone so far out on a limb (much to the embarrassment of many of its members), that it has even favored sneaking such courses in or disguising their contents, if necessary, so as to calm parents who are being to wonder just what is being taught in our schools today.

Regardless of "People for Huron" or other anonymous critics, the members of MOTOREDE will continue to insist that what their children are taught is their concern. And we will continue to work with every American who joins with us, in helping to restore the values, manners, customs, and traditions that have preserved this Nation and strengthened its people.

Nation is still in financial trouble

By WILLIAM D. FORD
Congressman, 15th District

9.1 per cent to 8.3 per cent, still well above the national average.

Even those still working are feeling the pinch. The average work week continued to drop last month, and now has fallen to 36.8 hours. As a result, average weekly earnings fell 84 cents. Although income, in terms of dollars, has risen during the past two years, actual income in terms of buying power has gone down steadily.

In the Detroit metropolitan area, prices rose 3.4 per cent during the first half of this year, and will probably show at least that much of an increase during the second six months.

The consumer price index climbed more than 11 points during the first 18 months of the Nixon Administration, nearly doubling the 6.6 increase during the preceding 18 months.

The cost of food and medical care led the inflationary surge, while housing also skyrocketed. With the highest interest rates since the Civil War, the cost of owning a home has risen 16 per cent. The 30-year cost of a $20,000 mortgage, which was $49,000 in 1968, is now more than $59,000.

In the past year, the cost of living at a moderate level for a family of four has risen so much that the breadwinner must make $750 more in order to just break even.

The current situation represents the fourth major recession of the past 20 years - and all have occurred under Republican administrations. The Eisenhower years saw three economic slumps, in 1953-54, again in 1957-58, and then in 1959-60. Then, as now, unemployment rose to over five per cent.

It is time to drop the discredited policy of using unemployment to fight inflation. This country's needs are so great that there should be work for every American.

It is time to use the resources of the federal government to reduce interest rates, to stimulate construction and to remove the fear of unemployment from the shoulders of all Americans.

Speaking of schools

See you at the open house

By ROBERT L. McCONEGHY, Superintendent of Romulus Schools

Sunday has been designated as the day when citizens of Romulus will have the opportunity of viewing recently completed buildings in the school district.

Open house will be held on that date from 1 to 4 p.m. at the new Merriman Elementary School on Merriman Rd., south of Eureka; at the Senior High School located on Wayne Rd., north of the Expressway; and at the Board of Education-Maintenance Building, located on Grant Rd., west of Wayne Rd.

The Board of Education is hopeful that many citizens will take time to attend these open house receptions.

These facilities were completed and financed through funds derived from the $3,400,000 bond issue approved by the voters at the Oct. 16, 1967 election.

Proceeds from this same bond issue were used to complete library additions to Beverly and Hayti Elementary Schools; a new kindergarten room at Romulus Elementary; plus some remodeling at all three buildings.

The completion of the new Merriman Elementary School and the opening for student occupancy this fall has made it possible for the Board of Education to provide classroom space for all students, and the use of temporary, mobile classrooms at Hayti and Harrison has been discontinued. However, sufficient classroom space will be available ONLY this school year if the present student growth continues.

As predicted in the projections of student population, the district's fourth Friday count showed an increase of 350 students this year.

The expected student growth of Harrison Elementary from the new Meadows Subdivision has become a reality and provisions will have to be made for housing the potential students from that area.

Continued construction of homes and townhouses in the Oakbrook Subdivision off Eureka will result in full occupancy of the new Merriman Elementary School shortly.

Continued construction of homes and townhouses in the Cory Elementary attendance area means that a new elementary school must be built to service that area.

The Board of Education, aware of the critical housing situation facing the district, placed an $11,000,000 bond issue before the electorate last April. The issue failed to win voter approval. The defeat means that the district will now be a full year behind in its building program.

Another bond issue must be placed before the voters, and a new application for such is in preparation.

The situation, as I see it, demands that the district build a new junior high school and at least one new elementary school, immediately, with funds available to provide additional facilities as need arises.

When the new application is prepared and approved by the Board of Education, school patrons will be duly informed through this newspaper.

Future projects call for a total of 14 elementary schools; four junior high schools and two high schools to serve the full potential of student growth for the Romulus School District.

We are cognizant of the challenge and aware that preparations must be made to meet it immediately.

BREAK GROUND FOR NEW BANK BRANCH — National Bank of Detroit held groundbreaking ceremonies for its new Romulus branch, the Metropolitan Airport office last Wednesday. Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael of Romulus and Edmund Galazka, manager of the Romulus Branch of NBD (with shovels) broke ground for the new facility. Among the city and bank officials attending the event were:

city clerk; Albert Glinski, city treasurer; Irving Wallace; NBD's administrative manager for Romulus and Belleville; Charles Hazen, industrial coordinator, Romulus; Joseph B. Gallagher, building inspector; Floyd Griffith, NBD vice president; James Miller, assistant vice president; and representatives of the architectural and contracting firms.

NBD'S METROPOLITAN AIRPORT OFFICE — An architect's drawing of National Bank of Detroit's newest branch, the Metropolitan Airport Office is shown above. Ground-breaking for the new bank facility was held last Wednesday. It is to be located at 10421 Middlebelt Rd., just north of Goddard Rd., Romulus. A building permit for the $187,500 structure has been issued by the Romulus Building Department.

Ground breaking held for new NBD office

The city of Romulus took another step in its business development program last Wednesday as Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael and other city officials broke ground for a new office of the National Bank of Detroit, located at 10421 Middlebelt just north of Goddard Rd. in Romulus. It will be called the Metropolitan Airport Office.

The bank had an interim facility at that location for two and a half years, and plans on having the new one-story $187,500 building complete by late 1971. The office will have a safe deposit vault, five teller windows and drive-in service.

"I have been very pleased with the growth in business, not only for our bank but also for our community," said Edmund L. Galazka, manager of the National Bank of Detroit's Metropolitan Office, who will stay on to manage the new permanent facility. "In the two and a half years that I have been a part of Romulus, I have seen this growth permeate just about every area of business and commerce, and I think the people of Romulus have profited greatly from it."

The Metropolitan Airport Office will be of modern design featuring extensive parking, special sound-proofing construction and an operations layout that will permit full-service banking to individuals and businesses.

Mayor Carmichael unearthed the first shovel of dirt during a short ceremony with other city officials and NBD officers.

After the ground-breaking ceremony, Galazka said, "Growth by itself means little to a community, and I think the people of Romulus would agree with me that it is what we build, and not how much we build, that should be the most important consideration. I firmly believe that banking facilities, just like our library and our city hall, are the type of buildings that should be going up, for they provide the kind of services we need in order to grow in the right direction."

Galazka is a member of the city of Romulus Building Authority which is building Romulus' new library and city hall.

Floyd R. Griffith, vice president of NBD's Branches in the Belleville - Romulus area, said that bank officials were quite pleased with the response of the people of Romulus to NBD branch offices in the area, and that construction will soon begin on a second permanent facility in Romulus, located at Eureka and Wahrman. "There is a steady development of business in the Romulus area," Griffith added, "and NBD is pleased to be part of it."

Both Romulus offices are being designed by Architect, C. E. Noetzel.

Construction contractor for the Metropolitan Airport office is master plan construction Co. of Detroit.

More than 100 attend PTA meeting

An open house at Mt. Pleasant Elementary School last Tuesday night drew more than a hundred parents and children, announced Mrs. Glena Waddell, PTA president. Classrooms were decorated in anticipation of visitors.

Mrs. Diane Golka's and Martin Dickerson's sixth grade rooms were of special interest to parents who found their children's desks occupied by life sized figures, fashioned to resemble the daytime occupant of each seat.

Refreshments and conversation in the multipurpose room followed the classroom visits.

Belleville Jaycees to send gifts

The Belleville Jaycees are launching their fourth annual "Package to Vietnam Project" this week.

The packages that are prepared are sent to local boys serving their country in Vietnam.

Articles in the packages include candy, books and other reading materials, dried fruits, canned goods, popcorn or any other article of interest. Sam Villa, chairman of the project, reported.

If there are any area citizens who have relatives or friends in Vietnam, the Jaycees would appreciate receiving their names and addresses where the Jaycees can send a package.

If anyone has any items to donate to the project, they can call Villa at 461-7721, or send them to the Belleville Jaycees in care of Villa at 18100 Elwell Rd., No. 39, Belleville.

For papa-to-be

DEPARTING FROM the usual custom of showering the mother-to-be, Herb and Dorothy Hoerig did an about-face when they tagged their baby shower for Arthur Hagerman rather than for his wife, Marjorie, who's infanticipating (to coin a Walter Winchellism.)

Friends arrived on Alden Drive with both practical and gag gifts in tow including a broken alarm clock and two pacifiers in a box marked "earplugs".

Several comical games were played after which barbecues and a variety of dishes contributed by the guests were enjoyed. Two sheet cakes were used as centerpieces, the first decorated by the hostess with little trinkets from a father-to-be kit and the other made by Ruth Brown of Warren featuring a stork on a motorcycle delivering a baby on Alden Drive. The latter was most appropriate since the expectant parents are trail riders who belong to the Cycle Conservation Club of Michigan.

The honored guest, who was completely surprised, was presented with a corsage of orange and white plastic flowers with a cigar and tiny baby items attached.

The guest list included the AlMagdas of Jonesville; the Don Browns, Bill Wheatleys, Jr. and senior Bill Wheatleys, all from Warren; the Tom Kellys of Ferndale; the Richard Kindreds of Detroit; and the Garcia Spaws and Glen Weavers from Wayne.

Belleville friends in on the fun were Tom and Kay Rose, Ron and Jeanette Hardesty, Bill and Joy Butler, Galen and Sue Warren and son, Tim, Mike and Ann Hardesty, John and Mary Duff, and Joe and Neva Wisniewski.

Anniversary dinner

SEVERAL BELLEVILLE Kiwanians and their wives traveled to Plymouth last Friday evening in response to an invitation from the Plymouth Kiwanis Club which was celebrating its 45th anniversary.

Attending along with the Wymans were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Atchinson, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hopka, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hill, Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Miller and their house guest, Miss Gladys Thorpe of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith.

THE BUDDS - Melvin and Charlotte - are back in Belleville after an absence of three weeks. Motoring westward, they toured the U.S. Air Force Academy near Colorado Springs, stopped at Mesa Verde and the Grand Canyon, and visited friends in Kingman, Sun City and Phoenix, Arizona.

The Petrified Forest was on their itinerary enroute home and they especially enjoyed the spectacular autumn color tour as they traveled through Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, and on into Michigan.

IT'S APPLE-COOKIN' TIME — Swinging down the road scattering apple seeds, Johnny had no idea how popular apples would become. And a hit with the dessert crowd, Apple Turnovers are a proud tribute to this delicious fruit. Convenient pie crust mix gives these turnovers a tender, flaky crust. For a perfect flavor complement, serve Apple Turnovers with cheese.

Apple Turnovers

Makes 8 turnovers

Apple Filling:
4 cups thinly sliced cooking apples
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/3 cup sugar
1/4 cup water
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
2 teaspoons grated lemon peel
Crust:
One 10-Oz. pkg. pie crust mix
4 tablespoons water
8 teaspoons currant jelly

Heat oven to hot (400 degrees F.). For apple filling, combine apples, butter, sugar, water, cinnamon and lemon peel in saucepan. Cook over low heat until liquid is almost absorbed, stirring frequently. (Mixture will resemble applesauce).

For crust, empty contents of package into bowl. Sprinkle water by tablespoons over mix; stir with fork until just dampened. Form into ball. (If too dry, add a little more water.)

Divide into 8 equal parts. Roll out each part on lightly floured board or canvas to form a 6-inch circle. Place a tablespoonful of the apple filling on bottom half of each circle; top with a teaspoon of currant jelly. Fold the top half of each circle over the apple filling; seal edges and prick tops.

Bake on ungreased cookie sheet in preheated oven (400 degrees F.) about 30 minutes or until golden brown. Cool. Serve with cheese.

LINDA ASKEEW

Linda tours with choir

During the month of August, the Eastern Michigan University Choir traveled to Vienna, Austria, where they sang under the direction of Professor Turin, director of the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra.

Three other choirs from other U.S. colleges were also present in Vienna at this time.

Highlighting the tour was a concert given on the last week. The combined choirs sang the cantata "Elijah" by Felix Mendelssohn.

Linda Askeew of 11356 Delano, Romulus, was selected from the four choirs soloists to sing the part of Jezebel the queen.

Linda is beginning her second year at EMU, where she not only carries a full academic load, but works full time on the night shift at Beyer Memorial Hospital.

On the weekends she is often heard as a guest soloist at churches in the Ypsilanti-Romulus area.

For her wedding day, Cathy selected a bouffant gown of Chantilly lace styled with a high neckline, wristpoint sleeves, and a tiered skirt.

Her illusion veil cut in mid-back length, was held by a petaled headpiece studded with sequins and pearls. A cascade of white roses completed her ensemble.

As her sister's maid of honor, Linda Faye Jenkins wore a gown of pale orchid nylon chiffon with white lace accenting the high collar and cuffs. She wore a bow to match her dress and held a bouquet of harmonizing mums and carnations.

Appearing in rainbow hues were Mrs. Robert Laurain in peacock; Mrs. August Jesse in yellow; Mrs. Thomas Smith in pink; and Teresa Jenkins in aqua.

Becky Laurain, three, carried a basket filled with mums and donned a frock in hot pink for her role as flowergirl. Three-year old Tina Smith was dressed as a miniature bride. The junior set also included the ringbearer, five-year old Roy Walls, JR.

Allan E. Suennick served as best man for his brother. Groomsmen were Robert Laurain, August Jesse, James Suennick, and Thomas Smith, all of New Boston. Ushers were James Bowers and Daniel Dvorch, cousins of the bride from New Boston.

Rock was reserved for the reception which followed. Mrs. Jenkins greeted some 400 guests in a blue coat-dress ensemble to which she added her carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother donned a gold ensemble and carnation corsage for the occasion.

Both Huron High School graduates, the newlyweds are now making their home at 19409 Somers Street, New Boston.

The new Mrs. Suennick is employed at Mastercraft Engineering, Belleville, and her husband is with Detroit Diesel.

The October meeting of the Home Arts Club, traditionally a smorgasbord dinner, took the shape of a Hawaiian luau Monday evening as 31 members and three guests, Joan Severson, Eleanor Merecki and Jean Ferguson, took part in the festivities.

Opening with a buffet set-up of South Seas and Asian dishes, the evening included a silent auction on white elephant items the group had resurrected from attics, basements and hidden corners.

At the business portion, Jan Sierota introduced two new members, Carolyn Hyde and Janet Patterson. Copies of the newly-revised constitution were discussed and distributed by the committee, Avis White, Joy Hill and Flo Hudge.

Social Security answers given

Q. I retired a few years ago and began receiving social security payments. Recently, I returned to work. Must I contribute to social security now?

A. Yes, if your job is covered by social security. And this is likely, because over 90 percent of all jobs are covered. The contributions must be paid without regard to retirement status, age, or whether you are getting social security payments. An important point is that the contributions may increase the social security payment you will receive when you again stop working if your earnings are high enough.

Q. My mother is unable to manage her social security payments. What should I do?

A. Notify your social security office of your mother's condition. If, based on a medical report from her doctor or legal findings, she is unable to take care of her benefits, someone will be appointed to receive and manage them for her. This person should be a close relative with whom your mother is living or someone who is genuinely interested in your mother's welfare.

The person must agree to use the money for your mother's needs and to make an accounting of the money received and spent. Ask your social security office for additional information.

Snowmobile Committee to promote that sport

The Wayne County Sportsmen's (WCSC) Snowmobilers Committee have a group of snowmobile couples that are not only having fun but are working together to give snowmobilers a better reputation.

As a snowmobile committee they worked last July 26, and supervised a Summer Drag Race, M.I.S.A. approved. The committee made over $2,000 for the CSC to help with conservation in Wayne County.

When snowmobilers run loose in a neighborhood, there's usually trouble and this group is trying to mark all trails and get permission of all owners to have trails throughout the neighborhood and for use by all club members.

Another project of the club was that members had State Representative Edward Mahalak in for a talk on House bills relating to snowmobiling.

The men, women and even children talked on a tape about their feelings on snowmobiling as a family sport, racing machines and anything to do with snowmobiles.

Another activity club members are looking forward to, while working on their snowmobiles and waiting for the first snow is a Hayride on Halloween night Oct. 31.

If you are interested in club activities and live in or near Wayne County and would like further information contact Committee President, Lefty Price, about joining.

Members meet at Wayne County Sportsmen's Club, on Inkster Rd., between Pennsylvania and Sibley Rds.

STUDENTS WEAR ART RESULTS-Fifth and sixth grade students at Denton Elementary School tie-dyed articles of clothing in their art class. Results of the art program is shown above as the students of Mrs. Catherine Krebs' combination class display the results. The articles are tied and then dipped into dye. The tie does not absorb the dye resulting in unusual color patterns.

The fifth and sixth graders at the Denton Elementary School tie-dyed shirts are their art project.

"This project was really relevant to the children. It was something they could see and use," exclaimed Principal William S. Chizmar.

The project was under the direction of Robert Ligaj the Denton art-music teacher.

The process is actually rather simple. First you tie the article to be dyed into sections. Secondly, you dip the article into the dye. The area that is tied will not absorb the dye and you obtain a very unique pattern. The more colors you use the better the effect.

Dome stadium called 'vital' for Detroit

Plans for the $125 million domed sports stadium proposed for Detroit's riverfront have been aired at a public hearing held by the Detroit Common Council and members of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

Backers of the project predicted the stadium would stimulate a "vast expansion" of business activity, increase employment opportunities and generate some $25 million a year in tax revenue.

Spokesmen for three organized homeowner groups opposed use of any public funds for the project. They

Local student on dean's list

Senior English major, Delores Schneider, daughter of Mrs. Medo D. Weaver of 10920 Inkster Rd., Romulus, has been named to the Dean's List at Adrian College for outstanding academic achievement during the 1970 academic year.

To be named to the Dean's List a student must have a 3.25 average on a four-point scale. Generally, this means their grades must include at least one A and no grade lower than a B.

Sewer bids are approved

Construction contract bids for Romulus' latest sanitary sewer extension program were approved by city council.

Successful low bidders for the city's two contracts were the Mole Construction Co., of Taylor and the Akron Construction Co., of Belleville.

The successful bid on Proposal One was Mole Construction Co., bid of $37,649.60 and for Proposal Two was that the $14,891.60 bid of the Akron firm.

Wade, Trim & Associates, city engineers, recommended acceptance by the city of bids and reported that construction estimates for the Beverly and Burton Rds. sanitary sewer extensions were $69,800 and $16,400 respectively.

Under present plans, the major portion of the project would be financed through revenue bonds issued by the publicly-owned Wayne County Stadium Authority. The bonds would be paid off from lease payments by stadium tenants, such as the Detroit Lions and Detroit Tigers and concessionaires.

Detroit Controller Robert P. Roselle, a member of the stadium authority board, told the hearing the project is "vital to the future of downtown Detroit."

Stop, look and lift potential pumpkins

Choosing a pumpkin for carving is a matter of looking and lifting.

Would-be jack-o-lanterns should be rounded in shape, ribbed, flattened at the ends, rich orange in color and heavy for their size, says Sharon Wineland, consumer marketing information agent at Michigan State University. They should also be free of blemishes and have a hard rind, she adds. Bruised or otherwise injured pumpkins should be examined for evidence of decay. Decay may appear as a watery or water soaked area, sometimes covered with moldlike growth.

Pumpkins should be stored at about 55 degrees F. Depending on the quality, they will usually keep two to six months at this temperature.

Once the pumpkin has been carved, you can extend its life and delay mold growth by spraying the inside with clear plastic, Miss Wineland says.

EN ROUTE TO 1ST PACE — Kicking up his heels is Belleville's Jon Cross who flew in with a 13:01 to claim first place individual honors at Saturday's Western Wayne Invitational. Cross is one good reason why the Tigers are undefeated in dual meet competition this season.

Tigers snap streak

Things may be looking up for Keith Emerson and his Belleville Tigers after they notched their first Suburban Six Conference victory of the season.

The victory, Belleville's second in five starts, came at the expense of Livonia Bentley. The Tigers trounced the Bulldogs 14-6 to give them a 1-2 league record.

The win equaled last season's

Cross finishes in 1st place

Belleville wins WW title

By MIKE HENDRICKS

The inevitable finally occurred. Belleville's undefeated cross country team won a major championship Saturday as they outclassed all opponents in the Western Wayne County Invitational.

The Tigers accumulated 40 points as they beat out Cherry Hill (49) and defending champ Franklin who came in third with 59 points.

John Cross led all runners as he crossed the finish line in first place in 13:01. Phil Combs flashed through in third place, Lonny Clark finished 10th, John Cicotte came in 12th and Gary Reffitt ended up in 14th spot.

Earlier in the week the Tigers breezed to their eighth straight dual meet victory without a loss by downing Allen Park 18-47. Belleville stands at 4-0 in league competition.

In the Allen Park confrontation, Cross wiped out the old course record in winning the meet with a 10:26 clocking for the two and one quarter mile run. Phil Combs once again finished in second place while Thomas captured the fourth spot and Cicotte and Clark finished fifth and sixth respectively.

Tuesday Belleville grabbed off a third place finish in the Redford Union Invitational which attracted 25 schools. Cross completed the course in 12:41 which was good for a third place finish. Combs, Clark, Cicotte and Gary Reffitt finished in 16th, 38th, 42nd, and 44th places, respectively.

Today the Tiger runners will be in Ypsilanti for a dual meet and on Thursday Belleville will host Trenton in a Suburban Six meet held at the Lower Huron Metropolitan Park. The runners will take off at 4 p.m.

On Saturday the Tigers will travel to Southgate to participate in the Southgate Invitational.

The season is rapidly drawing to a close and coach Ken Head noted that the best marbles are yet to be won.

"All season long we've been gearing ourselves for the big meets which are coming up in the next few weeks," he said. "Its the regional and league meets which come before the state championships that really count and that is what we are going after."

One thing is for sure, the Tigers are headed in the right direction.

Monroe's superior forces rip Huron

Huron High saw its record slip to 3-2 for the season as the chiefs suffered a 26-6 defeat by Monroe Catholic Central in a Huron Conference game.

Despite the loss coach Lee Seltzer and his charges could take their pride in their performance.

It was no run of the mill Class "B" team that invaded the Chief's home grounds last Friday.

Monroe Catholic Central came into town riding high atop a 23 game winning streak and left with a 24 game streak. Catholic Central is ranked No. 2 in the state Class "B" poll.

"We played a good game," Seltzer commented. "With the exception of the second quarter, I would say we played real well. We even dominated the second half."

Monroe isn't a team that you can make mistakes against. They are an extremely good team and they take advantage of every break that comes their way," he said.

Monroe scored its first touchdown early in the first period when it turned a pass interception into a touchdown. Monroe CC's quarterback Joel Pollzie hit Steve Troskin with a 20-yard touchdown pass. Lennie Bunk converted the point after to give the visitors a 7-0 first quarter lead.

The second quarter saw Monroe jump to a 20-0 lead when Mike McKee broke thru the Huron line to clock Glenn Dregansky's punt and take it in for another six pointer.

Monroe's third score came on a 25-yard run by Bunk who also converted the point after to end the first half.

Monroe added its fourth and final TD of the night in the third period when Pollzie connected with John Illes on a 25 yard scoring pass.

Huron's six points came in the last period after Chuck Inman capped a 65 yard drive by lunging the last four yards into the endzone.

Dregansky once again led Huron with 45 yards rushing against the conference champs with eight solos. Jack Gracia put in a commendable defensive performance making good on seven tackles. The loss gives Huron a 2-2 conference record while Monroe stands at 4-0.

Huron's next game will be a league encounter with winless Monroe Jefferson. The game will be at Jefferson on Saturday. The kick off will be at 2 p.m.

Tigers name 2 coaches

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers named two additional coaches to assist recently hired manager Billy Martin with the American League club during the 1971 season.

Named were Art Fowler and Charlie Silvera.

Fowler will handle the pitching staff and Silvera will assist Fowler with the bullpen.

Bentley's sole touchdown of the contest came in the fourth quarter at a time when the Tiger defense lost its poise.

GOING DOWN — Putting a stopper on Huron's Glenn Dregansky's bid for more yardage is an unidentified Monroe Catholic Central griddler. Huron gave the second ranked Class "B" state power a run for its money, however, before falling 26-6 Friday night.

WESTERN WAYNE CHAMPS — Belleville proved Saturday that its cross country team is one to contend with this season as coach Ken Head's undefeated Tigers jetted to their first Western Wayne Invitational championship. Members of

Romuluscrushed, 34-0

Romulus discovered to its dismay why Ecorse won the Twin Valley Conference title. The new champs crunched the Eagles 34-0.

The loss gave Romulus a 0-1 Twin Valley record while the Raiders wrapped up the title with a 2-0-1 mark.

In what was probably their worst game of the season for the 1-4 Eagles, coach George Pratt noted: "Our boys acted as though they were ready to get back on the bus as soon as we got there. They certainly weren't ready to play ball."

Mistakes characterized the Eagles' play. They racked up their fourth straight loss and third shutout in a row.

Ecorse scored its first six points very early in the opening quarter when a Romulus player forgot he was on the punting team and the Ecorse receiver took the punt on a 40 yard touchdown romp right past the Eagles 10-man team.

Ecorse added a 33-yard scoring pass and a 20 yard run to close out the scoring in the first stanza.

Romulus' defense did make a valiant goal-line stand in the third quarter, holding the champs for four downs on the five yard line. However, the offense fumbled the ball away when it took over and Ecorse scored from the eight yard line.

The champ's final tally came with only 1:30 remaining in the game when an Eagle secondary stumbled and Ecorse waltzed by on a 5-yard pass play.

"Actually we did as many things wrong as possible," Pratt lamented. "If we are going to win any more games we are just going to have to get our offense cranked up. So far our defense has been playing three quarters of the time."

Defensively the Eagles put in a commendable performance. Mike Caszar, as usual, led all tacklers with nine solos and three assists. Marvin Williams put the stop on Ecorse runners seven times by himself and helped out on another and Ken McMann intercepted an aerial to stop a drive while sophomore Daryl Godin also played an effective game.

It was bad news in all departments for coach Pratt. He lost the services of his starting freshmen linebacker Mike Hunter. Hunter broke his wrist in the game.

OFFENSIVELY, FULL BACK John Arrington accounted for 39 of the Eagles' 55 yards rushing and Virgil Smith teamed up with Brent Hamilton to make good on four pass attempts for another 40 yards.

Friday River Rouge will visit the Eagles. The Panthers, who are 1-1 on the conference campaign, will supply the opposition for Romulus' homecoming festivities.

Romulus Flyers win 2

With a record homecoming crowd on hand, Romulus Flyers didn't disappoint the home crowd Sunday as they picked up two of their three Little League football decisions against Garden City's Panthers.

The Varsity unit trimmed the Panthers 16-14 decision to their peers and the Freshmen shut out their rivals 10-0.

Some 1,000 fans witnessed the Flyers' games. It was the largest crowd ever to watch Little League football in Romulus.

Romulus will host Ann Arbor's Junior Wolverines on Sunday with the first game scheduled to begin at 12:30 p.m.

Sports Meridian

The 'game' fans didn't see at U of M

By TOM MOORADIAN

Most of the 103,000 football fans who attended the University of Michigan - Michigan State Saturday at Ann Arbor missed an exciting game.

Those selected few who played either have trial dates this week or released with a word of caution by Ann Arbor police.

Perched in the Press Box and armed with binoculars were a pair of detectives who had their eyes focused on the crowd and not on the players in the center of the huge arena.

Police radios kept officers in the stadium in touch with potential danger spots and, except for one incident where a fan tried to retain a football and fought to keep it, there was little excitement generated on the sidelines by the fans.

Were there any narcotics arrests? I asked a police lieutenant who replied:

"We had the usual alcoholic beverages passed back and forth by fans," he said. "But we did not make any arrests for illegal drugs."

The extraordinary precautions in part were taken by Ann Arbor and stadium police because of a suit brought to stop the game by a former Michigan Daily sports editor, Joel Block, who contended that the game was a public nuisance as much as a rock festival.

Block unsuccessfully sought an injunction in Washtenaw Circuit Court to try to halt the game. Circuit Judge Ross Campbell dismissed the petition on grounds "that Block offered no proof of widespread alcohol and drug use at football games and no evidence that U of M officials condoned their use."

Block refused to accept the decision and he announced that he and his lawyer, armed with binoculars and a movie camera, would produce such proof as needed by the courts.

So, in the atmosphere of a Pete Sellers' movie and with everyone spying on anyone, the classic game between the two arch rivals was played.

It ended, of course, with a Michigan victory.

And I picked Michigan State, of course...

Before bolting for University of Michigan stadium Saturday I got a chance to peek in on the Seventh Annual Western Wayne Invitational Cross Country Meet held at Wayne Memorial High.

That's the meet which Wayne Memorial High coach Dick Miller does all the work and we get most of the credit.

If skeptics continue to believe that cross country hasn't caught on in this area, then they should have seen this year's WW field - it was really an outstanding one. Runners like Donnie Andersen, Jon Cross, Phil Combs, Doug Kurtis and Phil Seibold to mention just a few, are excellent area product who can easily win the state title this year.

One question brought up, by none other than Cherry Hill coach, Joe Grasley, is: "Why isn't there an All-Area Cross Country Meet as there is in track?"

The Western Wayne is the closest thing to an All-Area contest, but it also has "outsiders" such as Livonia Churchill, Taylor Kennedy, Taylor Center, Annapolis and Crestwood in it.

(And, boss, for the umpteenth time I can't understand how we can figure Churchill an "outsider" while Franklin is an "insider?")

Churchill is much closer to home base than Franklin, isn't it. Anyway, I wasn't able to give coach Grasley an answer. Must hold off until all of the coaches have their say about such a meet.

It was good to see John Glenn's quarterback Jeff Senn on his feet. Jeff suffered a broken leg in the season opener against Garden City West and has been hobbling along ever since.

He says he will be ready to play basketball and that should be good news for cage coach Gordon Dabis.

County officials-- raises proposed

A commission of nine civic leaders has completed a study of Wayne County officials' salaries with recommendations that most elected officials be given raises.

Increases of $10,000 a year were recommended for the judges of Circuit Court, Probate Court and Common Pleas Court. Circuit judges now receive $30,000, Probate judges $29,000, and Common Pleas judges $26,500. There are 42 judges.

Havens said a lack of interest in recent judicial elections indicates that present salaries are insufficient to attract top legal talent to judgeships.

The commission recommended that six of seven other elective offices be granted $5,000 annual increases. They are the Clerk and Sheriff who now receive $25,000; and the Treasurer, Register of Deeds, County Auditors, and Drain Commissioner who now get $22,500.

A $2,000 increase was recommended for members of the 26-seat Board of Commissioners who now receive $10,000 a year. An increase of $3,000 was recommended for the Board Chairman who now gets $12,000.

No hike was recommended for the Prosecuting Attorney whose former salary of $29,500 was raised to $32,500 two years ago.

Adjustments were also recommended for three of the 21 appointive County boards and commissions.

The per diem compensation of the Civil Service Commission would be raised from $40 to $60 for a maximum of 200 meetings. The maximum number of compensable meeting of the Jury Commission would be increased from 200 to 250 at the established rate of $25 per meeting.

The three-member Soldiers Relief Commission would receive a $1,000 annual increase. The chairman now gets $11,900 and the others $10,800.

Sumpter PTO okays equipment purchase

The regular monthly meeting of the Sumpter Elementary School Parent-Teachers Organization (PTO) began with a flag ceremony led by the scouts from Troop and Pack 856.

The room of teacher Spencer Mack won the attendance banner for October.

Halloween Party progress was reported by activities chairman, Mrs. Girard. The PTO members voted to purchase a sewing kit and Polaroid camera, which will be kept at the school.

Troop 856 donated a large flag and stand to be kept in the gym. There has been no permanent flag in that room.

A special meeting held last Thursday for room mothers and Halloween Party committees.

Neighborhood Boy Scout Commissioner, Harold Innes, presented Pack and Troop charters for 856 to Mack, the institutional representative. The PTO has sponsored the scouts for two years.

Mrs. Ella Wollery presented a program of slides telling of the aims and progress of Title I. Mrs. Ann Bailey again volunteered to help in this program.

Mrs. Wollery has asked for one more parent from Sumpter School to participate. Anyone may contact Mrs. Wollery at the Van Buren administration building or School Principal, Tom McLenon.

Mack closed the meeting with thanks to the parents of the children in his class. A social hour followed and refreshments were served.

Lieutenant ends career with Sheriff's Patrol

By JOHN KUCI
Daily Eagle Staff Writer

"I'm proud to say I passed this way."

With those words, retired Lieutenant John W. Jankowski of the Wayne County Sheriff's Patrol summarized a distinguished career of work in law enforcement.

Jankowski retired from the Sheriff's Patrol on Sept. 30. He started on the county force in 1942 as a patrolman. He recalled the early days of what was then a very rural Western Wayne County. "The roads were often impassable in many areas. Communication was a big problem," he said.

"When I started out our headquarters were in the Dearborn Township Hall. Then we moved to the old Wayne County Road Commission building."

Jankowski noted that the institute a two-way radio system with patrol cars.

The lieutenant left the Road Patrol during the Second World War to serve a hitch in the Army with a criminal investigation detachment in Sheriff's Patrol was one of the first forces in Michigan to the Pacific Theater. As part of his training he attended FBI school for 21 weeks.

Upon his return his superiors recognized the valuable training he had received and in 1949 Jankowski was promoted to his present rank.

When comparing his early experiences as a patrolman to the present day status of the Sheriff's Patrol Jankowski made two observations. "The techniques of the modern policeman are more sophisticated," he said, "but the rapid growth demands that we sacrifice the closeness we once had with the communities we serve."

"These times are more demanding and because of that we lose something in the relationship between the citizen and the man in the uniform."

Jankowski sees the rapid growth and fast pace of modern living as one of the major underlying problems in America today.

We're paying the price of pressure cooker life as we lose the intimacy of family life," he believes.

When that "pressure cooker life" got to be too much for him to handle, Jankowski often turned to the relaxation of fishing. He has been a member of Detroit's Brigadoons Fishing Club since 1942, and intends to pursue his favorite pastime more in the days ahead.

Though the lieutenant and his wife, Anastasia, have no children of their own, he has found much enjoyment in his nieces and nephews whom he has helped to educate and has taken to Florida for a vacation.

In leaving the Sheriff's Patrol Jankowski will remember his fellow workers as a "nucleus of a lot of dedicated men who are professionals and not clock-watchers."

"I leave with pleasant memories," he said, "of nice people from all walks of life."

Obviously his friends hold the lieutenant equally as well. He was described by them as a "real professional" and "a hard-working and honest easy-going man."

Personal friends, the Knights of Columbus, and the Sheriff's office are presently working on plans for a retirement party to be held on Oct. 29 at the Polish National Alliance Hall in Hamtramck.

Group elects officers

The Parents-Teachers Organization (P.T.O.) of Denton Elementary School elected its slate of officers for the 1970-71 school year.

"This year started out like last year ended," exclaimed School Principal William S. Chizmar. "The parents out here are great. Eighty five people attended the first open house. You can't beat that for participation."

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

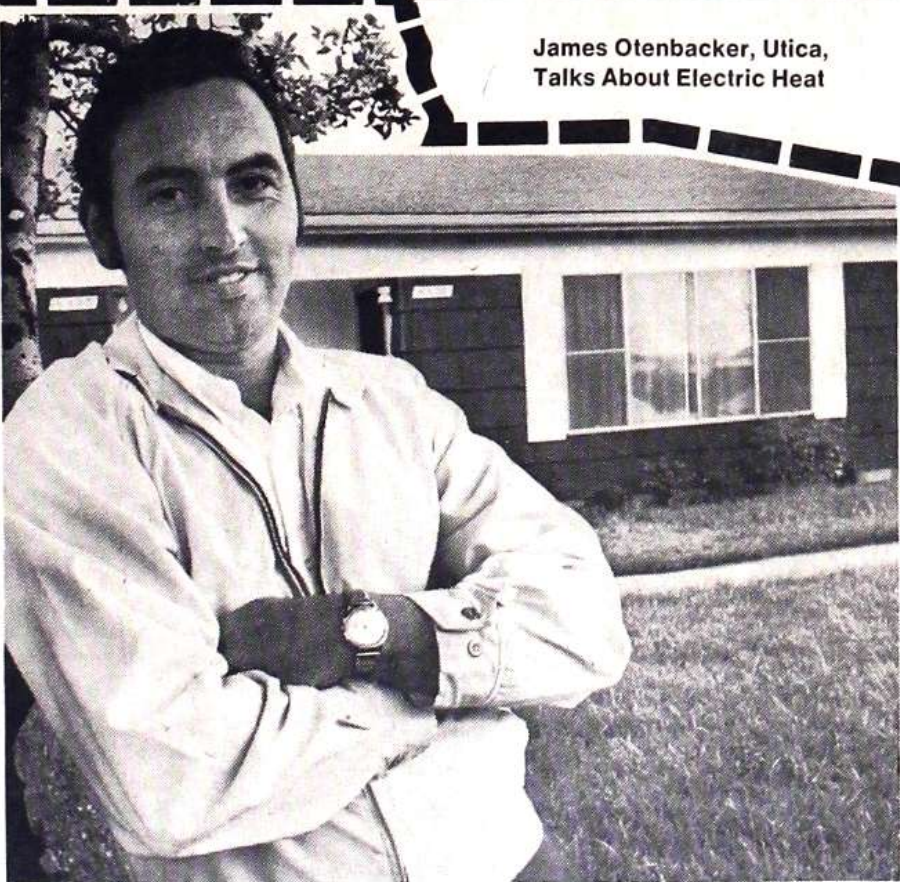

The late John Wannemaker once said, "Half the money I spend in advertising is wasted. But I have never been able to figure out just which half."

Maybe he was jesting. Maybe not. We don't know. But we do know there are problems in even attempting to do any funeral home advertising. Almost all funeral homes can and do say the same things. The ads usually stress quiet, dignified service; reverent care; sympathetic understanding; reputation for attention to detail—and so on. Actually however, when funeral home services are needed, the selection is nearly always made for reasons of reputation.

Through the years, our firm has earned a deservedly good reputation. Many families already know this. Even so, to better acquaint everyone with who we are, what we stand for, how and what we think—this new column will appear every week in this paper. Watch for it. Read it. Big ripe water melons
And the honey dew.

'Oppenheimer' good first effort

By HOWARD ALLEN
Eagle Drama Critic

The U-M Professional Theatre Program introduced The Actors Company, an excellent new organization with many of the talents from the APA, which it replaces at Ann Arbor, with "In the Matter of J. Robert Oppenheimer," which is at once the essence of drama and the antithesis of theatre.

It is easy enough to view the McCarthy era scornfully 15 years later and note an audience burst into laughter at an outraged question, "Do you mean to say that the FBI is capable of using false testimony?" But this is another era and the Oppenheimer hearings must be viewed in the period of McCarthy witch-hunting in which they were held.

Oppenheimer was the physicist who headed up the work at Los Alamos which produced the atomic bomb. By his own admission he was a fellow traveller with many leftist, even communist friends. The most objective assessment of him would have to concede that he was politically naive and certainly his judgment in covering up for a friend under investigation in an espionage matter was a most extreme case of misplaced loyalty.

And many conservatives viewed his reluctance to assist Edward Teller in the development of the hydrogen bomb as practically treasonous. But the well guarded, cloistered work at Los Alamos, when exposed to the chilling light of day at Hiroshima was sobering to many physicists who, once seeing that ivory tower explorations were fated for more than the futherance of science, became ardent pacifists.

The Kipperd vehicle is probably most effective because it sticks basically to the transcripts of the hearing in which Oppenheimer lost his security clearance. The horror of these hearings is the horror of word-for-word reality.

Staging such a vehicle presents several problems. Traditional blocking patterns are out because at a hearing mostly everybody stays seated at all times. Despite minor liberties in permitting characters to wander, director Fletcher wisely ignores the hazards of busy blocking, recognizing that the power of the play would overcome any effects of static stage patterns. Such physical relief as is needed is provided for by back screen projects and occasional expositions during breaks in the hearing.

Such productions require team acting. Individual performances would be intrusions, but the quiet humanity of Josef Sommer as Oppenheimer and the doomsday determination of APA favorite Clayton Corzatte as Dr. Edward Teller stand out.

The development of these weapons were necessary to preserve our freedom is the argument of the weapon-mongers, but as the play notes, "There are people willing to protect freedom until there is nothing left of it."

"Oppenheimer" is a most impressive first effort for the Actors Company.

Automation comes to Quo Vadis complex

The Quo Vadis Entertainment Center in Westland, which has attained international prominence for its four theatres under one roof, now enjoys the added distinction of being the first in this area to install complete automation in the operation of the theater complex.

Eight projection machines serve Quo Vadis I and II and the Quo Vadis Penthouse Theatres I and II.

The average theater uses 2,000-foot film reels requiring a change every 18 minutes to another projector. This is done manually by the projectionist. The new method, using 5,000-foot reels, require a change every 55 minutes, which is accomplished entirely by automation.

This automated system also starts the pre-show music, turns up the house lights, and at designated showtime starts the projectors, turns off the pre-show music, dims the house lights, opens the curtains, lights the projector lamps and turns on sound, all without any manual assistance.

These functions now permit the projectionists to give greater attention to other important phases of operation.

The automated projection lamps no longer use carbon but instead use xenon bulbs exclusively. This creates a non-flickering light which provides a steadier picture performance.

The two automated booths are supervised continually by two projectionists, Darryl Kavel, who presides over the Quo Vadis Penthouse Theatre I and II, and Herb Strong, chief projectionist, who supervises the Quo Vadis Theatres I and II.

That there are as many naturally fair-haired boys as fair-haired girls is common knowledge. It's a statistical fact, however, that the seemingly blonde girls in high schools nationwide outnumber the blond boys therein almost exactly by two to one. Where you aware there are seven fat women for every fat man? It's possible some humorous fellow who is overweight will want to know the whereabouts of his specific seven pleasingly plump ladies. But that's not what I meant, you know that.

Every third pedestrian killed in the traffic hereabouts is over 65. Am informed the cost of living over the last 20 years has gone up about $1.28 a fifth. In Essex Fells, N.J. the roosters are prohibited by law from crowing before 6 a.m. Three times as many women as men suffer from migraine headaches, but don't ask me why. Our planet expert says he now can verify the old claim that Leo men make the best carpenters, if trained.

General tendencies: This is a day when it would be wise to think in terms of what can be done best to please and delight others. It is also an unusually good time to shop for articles of beauty, apparel or gifts you would like to give to one of whom you are very fond. Make a point study ads in your newspaper for household articles.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) A perfect day to remove those things around the home that spoil its beauty and replace with new ones. Take it easy at home tonight or entertain good friends leisurely there. Show gracefulness.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) The plants are favorable and you can buy or sell very easily and well, as well as get home improved. Talk over with associates how to have improved working conditions for the future. Take time for a little fun in the evening.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) Concentrate on what will bring you more abundance in the future ethically and sensibly. Improving whatever you own adds to their value. Stop being so stubborn with mate.

Moon childrea (June 22 to July 21) Attend social which means a great deal to you. This could be along the romantic line, since the planets are favorable. Do some entertaining and show affection for those you like. Avoid historicities of any kind.

Leo (July 22 to Aug. 21) If you study the true motives of others, you know what you have been reacting as you have lately. Come to a better understanding. Closet yourself with an expert and get the advice you need. Make this a most productive day.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Seek to find out what good pais' expectations are and do your utmost to please them. Evening is a good time for entertaining or accepting invitations of worth. Stop lolling about so much.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Make certain you know what higher-ups expect of you and then do your best to please them. Do your share of the work. Get into community affairs that add much to present prestige you enjoy. Show earnestness in all you do.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Take a pause from dull routine and know better where you are headed in the future so that you can really advance. There are new personalities you can meet who will help you along such lines. Make it your business to contact them.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Ideal time to attend new places of recreation with partners so that you relax and understand one another better. Finding better ways to please mate is wise. You have been a bit neglectful lately.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You know exactly what to do today, so meet those responsibilities swiftly and precisely. Conduct business with associates and others while in pleasant surroundings. Show cleverness.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Show that you are willing to do more than your share of work to keep harmony with others. Later in the day find just the right kind of clothing that brings out your particular charm. Avoid guadiness.

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Although you may feel lackadaisical, make an effort to get out with others and have a good time and accomplish things. Go out of your way to show mate how much you really care. You haven't been very tender lately.

If your child is born today ... he or she will be one of those persons who thinks that romance is just a one-sided business, with the other person making all the effort. So it behooves you to teach early that through cooperation life can be successful in business or in personal matters. There may be too much deliberation here, but otherwise your progeny understands pretty much how to please others, once the habit of work is acquired. Religion improtant here.

Consider this - It has been just 10 years since the Rolls Royce engineers invented a car engine that could run on peanut butter. Surprised we've heard so little about it. By now you'd think the Carolina famers would have a 27 1/2 per cent depletion allowance. Wait, that's flip. Actually, Rolls Royce came out with an engine designed mainly for military vehicles. It could use almost any fuel that might be found on a battlefield. Tests showed it even worked on peanut butter. Mystery here is why such innovations make no headway in the automotive industry.

GM strike hurts Chrysler, Ford

By DANN BARKUME
Daily Eagle Staff Writer

"Take a car with four doors and lock three of them and see what happens."

That's what a General Motors dealer said when he asked how the current labor dispute between the giant automaker and the United Auto Workers was affecting new car sales and services.

It is obvious that General Motors dealers are feeling the pinch of the strike. Low sales and a reduced service demand have caused numerous layoffs and General Motors dealers will continue to feel the pinch until things get back to normal. That will be a few months after the strike is settled.

Ford Motor Company and Chrysler Corporation, dealers although they may not admit it, are feeling the pinch, too. The strike is affecting all of the Big Three automakers.

A survey was conducted by the Daily Eagle in this area to determine how the strike was affecting local dealerships. Outlets were selected at random in an effort to get a sampling of the overall effect of the strike.

Chrysler Corporation dealers Dodge, Plymouth and Chrysler dealerships—all said that the strike has not affected them in the least. Some say it has even benefitted them because of sales to would-be General Motors buyers who came over because of the strike.

Chrysler Corporation dealerships surveyed said that their figures this month were comparable to those of last year and called this same period last year as a good car buying period.

One dealer said that the current strike isn't hurting him. "People want to buy new because a price increase can be expected when the strike is settled and our company, as well as Ford, will probably increase prices too. They want to buy now to beat that price increase."

Ford dealers expressed mixed feelings. Some said that the strike was helping them and that General Motors buyers were now coming into Ford Motor Company showrooms and buying Fords, Mustangs, Mercury's, Mavericks, Capris and Pintos.

Another Ford dealer said that he hasn't felt the effects of the strike yet, but he expects to. A third dealer said that his employees have all reported business is down and place the reason for the slump in sales in the UAW strike against General Motors.

One Ford dealer said, "The strike is affecting each one of the big three because it's affecting the economy itself. When the strike is settled there will be renewed confidence in the economy and the people will start spending again."

General Motors dealers obviously are the ones most affected by the walkout. Parts are almost impossible to come by due to the closing of the warehouses. Sales are down and new car and parts replacement orders cannot be filled. One dealer said that it might take until spring before normal operation can begin again.

General Motors dealers are concerned about some of the less successful dealerships. "If a dealership was on the ropes before the strike," one dealer commented, "he could be all through if the strike is a long one."

Banks in the area report that their loan volume is pretty much on an even keel when compared to last year that there hasn't been much of a slowdown on loan applications in general.

One Ford dealer said, "Because GM is on strike doesn't give me a license to sell cars. I'm going to feel it just as much as the next guy."

General Motors dealers recall that they felt the effects of the UAW strike against Ford in 1967. Their contention is that both Ford and Chrysler are feeling some sort of a pinch because of the strike, even if they won't admit it.

"There seems to be a psychological factor involved," one dealer said, "if there is a strike, people stay away from showrooms and won't come in until the dispute has been settled."

If the strike is affecting Ford and Chrysler dealers in some way, they would not readily admit that their competition has an effect on their business operations.

One Ford Motor Company dealer did say however, that whatever one company does will indirectly affect the other two.

Quite a few new car dealerships are located in Western Wayne County and they are all affected by the strike in some way.

Walk-in business has been affected. Whether it is caused by those expressing support for the strikers or the tightened economy is not known. One thing is certain: The current contract dispute has left its mark on all corners of the auto industry.
